3. [REDACTED] Handcarried to Senator Stuart Symington the Director's letter to the Senator on the subject of [REDACTED]. I also highlighted several points [REDACTED] which might be the subject of discussion in the Senate Foreign Relations Committee meetings on the McCarthy resolution this morning. Senator Symington was quite rushed but seemed to appreciate the points mentioned and thanked me for bringing them to his attention.

4. [REDACTED] At various times during the day, I spoke with Mr. Conway and Colonel Rosen, of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy staff, and arrangements were made for the Agency to brief the Joint Committee on the third Chinese Communist nuclear test at 3:00 P.M., Friday, 13 May 1966. While I indicated a preference to have the Agency make the entire presentation, Mr. Conway was rather insistent that [REDACTED] be present. In view of Mr. Conway's strong feelings, we did not press the point but made it clear [REDACTED] presence should be an arrangement between the Joint Committee and Mr. Conway. Mr. Conway also mentioned that representatives from the AEC including the three Commissioners and Brig. Gen. Delmar Crowson, Division of Military Applications of AEC, would possibly sit in on the briefing. The presentation will be made by Dr. Chamberlain. Following the briefing, the Joint Committee may direct questions to the [REDACTED].
